Dignity/New York gathers proudly as a faith community of Lesbian, gGay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex and Straight Catholics and our friends. We welcome people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We welcome all to our liturgies regardless of their faith tradition, and all are invited to share in the Body and Blood of Christ at Communion. Our community has both ordained and lay presiders whom we have called forth to lead us during our liturgies.

As a progressive and inclusive Catholic community, we use gender-inclusive language. For example, you will notice that we use "All-loving God" instead of "Our Father" when reciting the Greatest Prayer. We make our best efforts to change our hymnals and printed materials as necessary, but they do not always reflect our use of gender-inclusive language. Please feel free to change any non-inclusive language as you prefer.

Also in the interest of inclusivity, our community has intentionally chosen to use the language of the Mass prior to the revision of the Roman Missal in 2011.

GATHERING SONG & PROCESSION: Lead Me, Guide Me

GC 574

Lead me, guide me, along the way,
For if you lead me, I cannot stray.
Lord, let me walk each day with thee.
Lead me, O God, lead me.

1. I am weak and I need thy strength and pow'r
To help me over my weakest hour.
Help me through the darkness thy face to see.
Lead me, O God, lead me.

To Refrain

2. Help me tread in the paths of righteousness.
Be my aid when Satan and sin oppress.
I am putting all my trust in thee.
Lead me, O God, lead me.

To Refrain

3. I am lost if you take your hand from me,
I am blind without thy Light to see.
Lord, just always let me thy servant be.
Lead me, O God, lead me.

To Refrain

God, let your face...

PREPARATION: Take Up Your Cross

GC 698

1. Take up your cross, the Savior said,
If you would my disciple be;
Take up your cross with willing heart,
And humbly follow after me.
2. Take up your cross, let not its weight
Fill your weak spirit with alarm;
His strength shall bear your spirit up,
And brace your heart and nerve your arm.
3. Take up your cross, heed not the shame,
And let your foolish heart be still;
The Lord for you accepted death
Upon a cross, on Calv'ry's hill.
4. Take up your cross, then, in his strength,
And calmly ev'ry danger brave:
It guides you to a better home
And leads to vict'ry o'er the grave.
5. Take up your cross, and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down;
For only those who bear the cross

May hope to wear the glorious crown.

PREPARATION PRAYER:

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER:

Introductory Dialogue as in the standard Order of Liturgy.

Presider: Compassionate One, all-powerful and ever-living God, we praise and thank you through Christ Jesus for your presence and action in the world. You are a God of love and mercy, always ready to forgive. We constantly fall short of your vision for us--we stumble, we falter, we hurt one another--and you invite us again to trust in your mercy.

All: In the midst of conflict and division, we know it is you who turn our minds to thoughts of peace. The Spirit changes our hearts: enemies begin to speak to one another, those who were estranged join hands in friendship, and nations seek the way of peace together. The Spirit is at work when understanding puts an end to strife, when hatred is quenched by mercy, and vengeance gives way to forgiveness. For this we never cease to thank and praise you.

Presider: Now, with all the choirs of heaven, we sing the unending hymn of your praise:

ALL: Preface Acclamation: Holy, Holy

GC 228

Presider: God of power and tenderness, we praise you through Christ Jesus, who comes in your name. Jesus is the Word that brings salvation, the hand you stretch out to sinners, the way that leads to your peace.

All: Eternal God, we had wandered far from you, but through your beloved One, you have brought us back. You gave him up to death so that we might turn to you and find our way to one another. And so we celebrate the reconciliation Christ has gained for us.

Presider: We ask you to sanctify these gifts by the power of your Spirit, as we now fulfill Jesus' command.

All: On the evening before his suffering and death, Jesus took bread into his hands, he blessed you, and broke the bread, and gave it to the disciples with the words:

Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is my Body, which will be given up for you. (PAUSE)

Presider: After supper,

All: Jesus took the cup and giving thanks to you, said:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me. (PAUSE)

Presider: Eternal God, your only begotten One has entrusted to us this pledge of love. We celebrate the memory of Jesus' death and resurrection and bring you the gift you have given us, the sacrifice of reconciliation. And so together, we proclaim our Easter faith:

Memorial Acclamation:

GC 230

Presider: Fill us with the Spirit through our sharing in this meal. May the Spirit take away all that divides us. May this Spirit bless our Dignity community, and bring us to that day when we will share this table with N., the bishop of Rome. Keep us in communion with all who serve and lead your people. Make your church throughout the world a sign of unity and an instrument of your peace.

All: You have gathered us here around the table of our Savior, in communion with Mary, Mother of God, and all the saints. We pray for our departed family and friends whom we commend to your mercy. In that new world where the fullness of your peace will be revealed, gather people of every race, language, and way of life to share in the one eternal banquet with Jesus our Savior.

Eucharistic Doxology And Amen

GC 168

Through Christ, With Christ, In Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours All-loving (Almighty) God, for ever and ever.

Amen, amen, amen. Amen, amen, amen!

THE GREATEST PRAYER:

COMMUNION: Everyone is welcome to receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

COMMUNION HYMN: We Come to Your Feast

GC 850

1. We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white:
the weaving of our stories, the fabric of our lives;
the dreams of those before us, the ancient hopeful cries, the promise of our future: our needing and our nurture lie here before our eyes.

We come to your feast, we come to your feast:
the young and the old, the frightened, the bold, the greatest and the least.
We come to your feast, we come to your feast with the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands, we come to your feast.

2. We place upon your table a humble loaf of bread:
the gift of field and hillside, the grain by which we're fed;
we come to taste the presence of him on whom we feed,
to strengthen and connect us, to challenge and correct us,
to love in word and deed.

We come to your feast...

3. We place upon your table a simple cup of wine:
the fruit of human labor, the gift of sun and vine;
we come to taste the presence of him we claim as Lord,
his dying and his living, his leading and his giving,
his love in cup outpoured.

We come to your feast...

4. We gather 'round your table, we pause within our quest, we stand beside our neighbors, we name the stranger 'guest.'
The feast is spread before us; you bid us come and dine:
in blessing we'll uncover, in sharing we'll discover your substance and your sign.

We come to your feast...

Bring forth the Kin'dom of mercy,

2. Cantor: You are a light on the hill, O people:
All: Light for the City of God!
Cantor: Shine so holy and bright, O people:

DignityUSA Issue Letter in Response to USCCB Statement Reacting to Executive Orders

We are writing on behalf of DignityUSA in response to the January 22, 2025 statement of Archbishop Broglio reacting to the first wave of executive orders issued by President Trump on Inauguration Day.

We appreciate and applaud USCCB's statement that many of these decrees "are deeply troubling and will have negative consequences, many of which will harm the most vulnerable among us." We also appreciate the hope that "the leadership of our Country will reconsider those actions which disregard not only the human dignity of a few, but of us all."

We, too, are deeply concerned about the impact of national policies which further destabilize the lives of those who may be most vulnerable among us. As an organization, DignityUSA, our local communities, and our members have long understood that harm to

Things You Can Do to Make a Difference

Given many discussions with our members who are looking for positive ways to meet these unprecedented moments, we are adding a new feature to Dateline. In this and upcoming issues, we'll share things that our members say they are finding helpful. Let us know what you're doing to take care of yourself, and to take a stand against harmful policies and actions at info@dignityusa.org.

In this issue, we have two suggestions:

5 Calls provides an easy way to take action on the political issues most important to you. They help you connect with your legislators and other public officials and provide talking points you can use in making the calls.

The nonpartisan anti-corruption nonprofit RepresentUS says: "...emails and petitions are incredibly helpful, but they're not as powerful as a phone call. While emails and letters might get lost in the masses, a phone call has a higher chance of making it to your lawmaker. Even if it's just an intern taking calls, a large volume of calls about one issue can make it clear just how much constituent support a policy has." Read more.

Engage at 5 Calls

Linda Piecynski, a former DignityUSA Board member and longtime member of Dignity Chicago, suggests the Pinta Pride Card Campaign. This initiative involves building community by sending greeting cards to LGBTQIA+ people who may be isolated or fearful.

Linda says, "After the election, I decided that my response had to be grounded in gospel principles. When I read about the Pinta Pride Project Card Campaign for the LGBTQ community, my first thought was, I can do that, so I wrote holiday cards to a number of recipients."

The writers I meet are the same kind of people who support DignityUSA, and I feel I am putting some joy into the world that has turned so dark."

Card writers are always welcome. Learn more about the project below.

Celebrating Black History Month

DignityUSA continues to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of our Black siblings during this Black History Month.

We would like to share this wisdom from Dr. Paula S. Langford at the Black Catholic Messenger. Dr. Langford shares strategies for navigating these times we find ourselves in:

Say 'Amen': A guide for self-care in a perilous age

We'd also like to share Berklee College of Music's a capella rendition of the Black National Anthem "Lift Every Voice and Sing".

From the NAACP:

Often referred to as "The Black National Anthem," Lift Every Voice and Sing was a hymn written as a poem by NAACP leader James Weldon Johnson in 1900. His brother, John Rosamond Johnson (1873-1954), composed the music for the lyrics. A choir of 500 schoolchildren at the segregated Stanton School, where James Weldon Johnson was principal, first performed the song in public in Jacksonville, Florida to celebrate President Abraham Lincoln's birthday.

At the turn of the 20th century, Johnson's lyrics eloquently captured the solemn yet hopeful appeal for the liberty of Black Americans. Set against the religious invocation of God and the promise of freedom, the song was later adopted by NAACP and prominently used as a rallying cry during the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s.

It is up to all of us to lift up our Black, Brown and Indigenous siblings during this trying time. Their priceless gifts have enriched this country and helped create a better world for

DignityUSA Re-affirms Support for Nonbinary and Transgender People

Within an hour of taking the Oath of Office of President on January 20, President Trump announced he would be signing an executive order making it national policy to recognize only two genders. He fulfilled this promise later the same day. The executive order is sweeping, directing federal agencies to return "biological truth to the federal government," and barring access to facilities like domestic violence shelters, migrant housing, and prisons based on gender identity. It will remove the "X" option for gender on passports and other federal documents.

DignityUSA states, "It is clear that the Administration is using widespread misunderstanding of and disinformation about transgender and nonbinary people to foster division and fear. This is potentially very harmful to many already vulnerable individuals and communities. DignityUSA stands firmly with people of all genders, gender identities, and gender expressions. We welcome you in our worshipping communities, we pledge our support, and we denounce all efforts to deny your realities. We believe that nonbinary and transgender people reflect the amazing, expansive, and humbling creativity of a God of boundless love. We urge all people of goodwill to stand against every attempt to restrict the human rights of gender-diverse people.”

Submit a Conference Theme Reflection Video by May 15

For the 2025 DignityUSA Conference in Ohio this July, we are working on a series of videos reflecting on the theme of the conference, "We Are God's People. Here. Now. Always." We are inviting you to participate, by recording a video of your reflection(s) on the theme of the conference.

The reflections should be brief--less than two minutes, and focus on what Dignity means to you and/or your community. They can reflect on the whole theme of the conference, or on the specific pieces of the theme, "God's People," "Here," "Now," and "Always." The videos should be recorded in landscape format as opposed to portrait format (framed horizontally rather than vertically), with a relatively neutral background.

Please note that submissions may be used in whole or part, and that submitting something does not guarantee use during the conference. Also note that in submitting a video, you are giving DignityUSA permission to use all or part of your submission for the conference, and in the conference livestream.

Please send the videos to Tom Yates at tyates02.ty@gmail.com by May 15. Feel free
